OVERVIEW

Villa Tamarindo is one of the most beautiful villas on the west coast. It offers a unique opportunity to own an exclusive West Coast residence. There is no home like it anywhere else in Barbados.

Tamarindo was designed by renowned local architect Larry Warren. The design incorporates traditional West Indian architecture. It has been designed and furnished beautifully. World class contemporary interiors meet classical elegance. The home benefits from exceptional indoor and outdoor areas for both living and entertaining.

The 20ft swimming pool and terrace are slightly raised from the beachfront. This provides privacy and breath-taking views.

Stunning Italian tiles adorn the terraces and dining areas.

The villa is on two floors. It been exquisitely furnished by talented interior designers. It does not have a lift but has been designed so that one can easily be incorporated. Tamarindo is set back from the road and provides a sense of peace and tranquility. The sea laps against the shore right in front of Tamarindo.

The gardens have been carefully planted and are beautifully maintained. This home has all the very best features of life in the Caribbean. There is even a mango tree swaying in the breeze.
